Air Courses Near Complete Quota

Physical examinations for 39 primary and advanced flight training enlistments have been given and passed, and a report is being awaited from Washington, D.C. confirming another student enlistment. Aeronautics Instructor Russell said today. If the report is satisfactory, the beginning flight class quota will be filled.

Seventeen advanced student pilots have passed their physical examinations while two other trainees must be re-examined, Mr. Russell revealed. The quota for advanced pilot training is 20.

"While actual flight instruction has not yet got under way," Mr. Russell announced, "enrollees are being schooled in ground training. The primary class is studying navigation, meteorology, and Civil Aeronautics regulations, while the advanced students are studying engines, airplanes, and navigation."

Engineers Association To Hold Convention

April 4 has been set by the American Association of Engineers for the opening date of a two-day convention of the national club to be held here, Dan Cullen, president of the local branch, said today.

Calendar of specific events to be held here by the junior college division of the AAE will be arranged at the next meeting of the club, Cullen said.

Expansion of Employment Service Insures Complete Coverage Of Jobs In Industry, Commerce

Full and part-time placement of more than 250 jaysee students in Southern California jobs since September was announced today by Miss Genevieve Humiston, director of the junior college employment service. Students were placed in approximately 30 different types of employment, it was indicated.

Sullivan To Compete In Photo Contest

Jack Sullivan, photographer for El Don and assistant photographer for Del Ano, announced today that he is entering a nationwide picture contest on college life sponsored by Look magazine.

With a possibility of winning a $500 first prize, Sullivan said he is going to make a picture story of some phase of junior college life on the campus.

Entrants of the picture contest must be a registered student in a junior college or university in the United States, Sullivan said.

Jaysee is featured in the current issue of Look magazine when 17 local students went to a Nevada snow party under the auspices of the magazine.

Revealing his plans, Sullivan said he intended to take from ten to fifteen shots of some jaysee activity. Deadline for the contest entrants is April 15.

DeMolays Head Municipal Offices On March 10

Santa Ana chapter, Order of DeMolay, will "take over" control of activities of all city officials, when they assume supreme authority March 10, the date of the organization's sixth annual civic day.

Led by Master Counciler Don Anderson, who will assume the office of Santa Ana mayor for the day, the youthful officials will attempt to show their older predecessors how a thriving metropolis of 33,000 should be governed.

Highlights of the affair will be the banquet to be held at noon in the basement of the Masonic Temple for DeMolays and their dispossessed guests, and the meeting of the city council in the evening, when the young officers will take charge.

"Expansion of the jaysee bureau at the first of the year has enabled us to cover practically every field of endeavor," Miss Humiston explained. "The college office works in coordination with the city schools employment service under W. W. Wieman, and with various jaysee department heads in securing jobs for collegians."

NEED MALE SECRETARIES

Coincident with the announcement, the instructor disclosed a demand for college men interested in secretarial or insurance work.

"Any students interested in such work upon graduation in June should register with this office in the Board of Education building as soon as possible," she advised.

DEPARTMENT PLACEMENTS

Outlining departmental placements, Miss Humiston revealed that nearly 75 jaysee aeronautics students are working in airplane factories. H. O. Russell, head of the mechanics department, supervised placement of the airplane mechanics workers.

Through the offices of Dean of Men Calvin C. Flint, Coach John Ward, and Dean of Women Eleanor Northcross, an estimated 95 collegians have been referred to part-time jobs for board or room or both to enable them to meet college expenses, it was learned.

COMMERCE DEPARTMENT

The greatest number of job placements have been made through the commerce department and its branches, according to the instructor. In the various classifications 78 students have obtained jobs. Positions in this department include general office work, telephone operation, bookkeeping, office assistance, sales service, office machine repairs, messenger clerks, and show card painting.

Sales and merchandising placements were made through Miss Dorothy Decker, merchandising instructor.

At Press Time

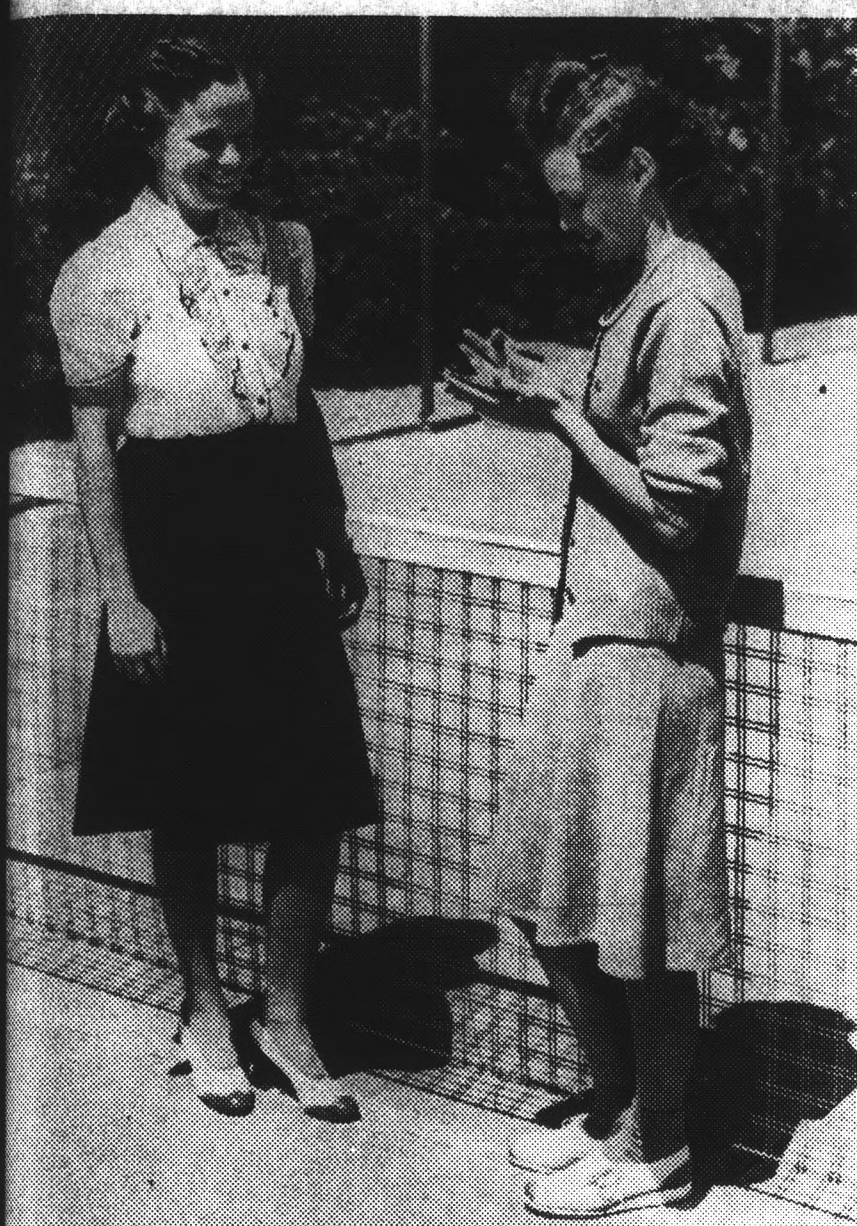

Mobilization of county national guard units Monday is expected to summon several jaysee men to active duty, it was learned this morning. The Santa Ana unit will remain here for at least 10 days before going to a permanent military camp.

THELMA AMLING RETURNS TO COLLEGE CLASSES

Thelma Amling, freshman student, returned to the college campus this morning after incurring minor head injuries in a traffic accident in Santa Ana late Wednesday afternoon. Other junior college students involved in the same crash, Isabelle Rellstab and Marieta Brown, were uninjured.

ANNE BELL NAMED ON FIESTA COMMITTEE

Announcement was made here this morning by Jack Clark, recently named chairman of the Fiesta committee, that Anne Bell, former social commissioner and Las Meninas president, has been named chairman of the Fiesta day entertainment committee. Miss Bell served last year as a member of the dinner committee. Clark said other committeemen will not be named until the return of Dean of Men Calvin C. Flint returns from the East.

Amateur Photography is Hobby of Physical Education Instructor

Combining her hobby of photography with her position as girl's physical education instructor is the major ambition of Miss Gerrie Griffith, she revealed today.

Beginning about eight years ago in high school with a small inexpensive camera, Miss Griffith has since done publicity work, newspaper photography, held the position as college annual photographer, and attended the recent expense-paid snow party from jaysee to Las Vegas, Nevada, all because of her interest in photography.

Most recent product of her camera is a series of pictures showing the technique of the different phases of gym work which she teaches.

BUYS OWN CAMERA

Paying for her own camera, Miss Griffith earned the money by writing a gossip column for the Los Angeles Herald while attending UCLA.

While in the Los Angeles university she was chosen to act as guide for Paul Dorsey, nationally known photographer, around the college campus in preparation for a photographic coverage of UCLA life.

WRITES ARTICLES

Since then the physical education instructor has written many accompanying articles for Mr. Dorsey in his picture work. Photographer Dorsey made possible the recent college excursion to Las Vegas, participated in by 17 local students.

Describing the recent trip to Las Vegas, Instructor Griffith revealed that Mr. Dorsey turned in 350 photos and 25 pages of accompanying story material for the article in Look magazine which was only four pages in length. Miss Griffith wrote much of the article material for the photographer.

Recounts Experiences in Foreign Colleges During Year Spent in French Household

By SARA S. SCHUNCK

"To acquire ease and fluency in speaking the French language, and to become familiar with the literature and history of the country, were the reasons I went to France for a year's study," said Thomas H. Glenn, head of the English department, in reminiscing about his year abroad.

"The two schools which I attended were in Tours and in Paris. They were specifically intended for the adult foreigner in France who desired to learn the language and customs of the French people."

FRENCH FAMILY

"Living with a French family, who were, as all French families are, leisurely, we spent much time arguing and discussing all manner of things. They encouraged me to talk to them, and were just as anxious to know my ideas and viewpoint as I was to become familiar with theirs."

"In Paris I studied for six months at the Alliance Francaise. Paris, to me, has always been the cultural capitol of Europe. Students from every country on the continent were attending the lectures at the college which again was definitely for adult foreigners, wishing to become better acquainted with France, its history, art, music, and language.

VARIETY OF SCHOLARS

"Teachers, writers, newspapermen, business and professional men and women, even naval officers, many with doctor of philosophy degrees, were in attendance. The nationalities included Poles, Russians, Checko-Slovaks, Jugoslavs, Italians, and many fellow Americans. The well-educated European, wishing to study a foreign language, usually goes directly to that country and lives there as long as he can afford to. With his training in thriftiness, he will manage to spend a year in France by practicing many small economies. The American wanting to learn a foreign language, studies it at the university of his choice, at home. He does not know how to stretch his budget, in order to go abroad, and as a result forgoes the advantages of foreign study."

The cultured European, especially the Frenchman, usually manages to get all the education he himself wants, but he does not have the broad altruistic attitude towards universal knowledge which we have in America, Mr. Glenn said. Raising the educational standards in his own community is not his concern, but a year's study abroad, is a matter of vital importance and personal achievement.

TELLS EXPERIENCES

"During my six months in Paris we learned many things besides the curriculum at the university," stated the local instructor. "We went to the opera, studied architecture, took trips to the old sections of Paris, and browsed through the museums and second-hand book stores, where I purchased many fine books. All of us did an amazing amount of outside reading for sheer enjoyment, which only foreign students studying abroad, seem to find time to do. Daily contact with this group of people from other nations was of such value, that it can only be measured by the universal standard of culture."

Bachelors' Ball Set For Tonight At Corona

Norconian Club Named Site of Dance; Music Provided by the "Esquires"

Music Adviser Tries For Club Revival

Revival of the Opera Reading club with a possibility of 20 students, doubling the number of members enrolled last year, was announced today by Miss Myrtle Martin, club adviser.

Purpose of the club, which will meet evenings at the home of club members, is to study different operas from its story, musical score, and records. Each meeting will last several hours, Miss Martin said.

Phonograph and records are furnished the club by the college.

Local Student Schedules Musical Appearance

Appearing before an audience representing California Lutheran alumni, Margaret Fields, freshman music student, will sing tomorrow evening at the Roosevelt hotel in Hollywood, it was revealed here.

Miss Fields, a member of the local chapter of the Luther club, is a member of the A capella choir and the Women's treble cleft, directed by Miss Myrtle A. Martin.

Track Records May Totter

Although it is too early to break track records, it appeared today that several of the oldest jaysee records would be erased from the books before the Red and Black trackmen hang up their shoes next May.

The oldest record in the books is that of Maurice Guyer for the 100 yard dash, which he set in 1928. He toured the distance in 9.8 seconds and a year later established the present 220 mark of 21.4.

NINE YEARS OLD

Three records have weathered the storm for nine years and were set in 1932. These include Fred Brooks' high hurdle mark of 15 seconds, Doyle Gilbert's 24 ft. 6 3/8 in. leap in the broad jump, and Jim Daneri's heave of 193 ft. 1 in in the javelin.

Three more records were written into the books in 1935, one in 1936, three in 1939, and three last year.

SET IN '40

Howard Elliot's 51 second quarter mile, run at Pomona was added last year, as well as Sam Henderson's shot put mark of 43 feet 8 in. The second record was a 1:59.5 half mile run by Art Berry in the Fullerton dual meet.

Of the 15 records which are now good, ten would be certain to undergo severe tests before the season is over. Records are:

100—Guyer '28—9.8
220—Guyer '29—21.4
440—Elliot '40—51.
880—Berry '40—1:59.5

REVEAL ACTIVITIES OF JAYSEE GRADUATES

George Griffith, '32, works for the Armstrong Cork company in Seattle, Wash.

William Blanchard, '33, is teaching art in Los Angeles and is on the council of Southern California Art Teachers association.

Bettie Timmons, '40, who is attending Washington State college, is a member of Alpha Chi Omega.

Benny McCoy Bets On Yanks, Indians in American League Race

Getting ready for a six months steady baseball grind at Anaheim with the Philadelphia Athletics is Benny McCoy, young infielder who today ventured a belief that either the New York Yankees or Cleveland Indians will capture the American league pennant this year.

According to the sophomore baseballer, the St. Louis Browns are the dark horse of the league. "But you mustn't forget," McCoy added hastily to the reporter, "that we are a vastly improved team over last year, and have the spirit and will to win that we lacked last season.

When questioned about his performance last year, the stocky athlete merely grinned and said that the reason for his failure last season to set the baseball world afire was due to the pressure which was upon him. He said, "Only a superman would have been able to do the things expected of me last season. Too much publicity can make it tough for a rookie trying to make good in his first year of major league baseball."

Optimistic over the Mackmen's chances this summer, McCoy stated that they could very easily end up in the first division.

Happy over the sunny weather of California, the real McCoy said that he drove out here from Michigan in one of the worst blizzards of the winter. Although overweight now, he believes that sunshine and constant workouts will soon get him down to normal weight, about 171 lbs. He also wondered whether he could acquire a Southern California tan.

After being declared a free agent last winter, McCoy was purchased by Mack for $65,000 and became the highest paid rookie of the year, but had only a mediocre season in 1940. This year, opposing pitchers may learn what it means to duck when the second sacker wields the willow at the plate.

Ward Trackmen Compete In Southern California Relay Carnival Tomorrow

Contingent Of 28 Enters Events

Entering a contingent of 28 trackmen, Coach John Ward tomorrow will give his forces their first competitive test in the annual Southern California relays at Pomona college.

Included in the total of 28 men are also the Don weight men who are entered in the field events. This is the largest group ever to be entered in the relay carnival.

NOT IN SHAPE "Because of steady rains during the last few weeks," Ward explained, "the boys have not had time to get in good shape for tomorrow's meet and therefore I shall be careful not to overwork them at Pomona."

The Dons triangular meet with Long Beach and Riverside was washed out last week.

GOOD DISTANCE TEAM

Scarleteer relay distance teams will probably repeat their performance last year. Entered in the medley of a 440, 880, 1320, and mile, will be a foursome which Ward will pick from: Jim Shaw, Art Mendoza, Keith Winchester, Joe Amaya, Art Berry, Vic Heim, George Clark.

Bill Wakefield, Walt Smith, Jack Porter, and Don Donaldson will probably compete in the shuttle hurdle event. Ward also stated that a four man mile team would be entered, but participants are not yet decided upon.

Last year the Dons placed third in the two mile and mile events besides getting points in the javelin, shot, and discus.

Los Gauchos Face All-star Quintet

Winners of the service club basketball tournament which ended competition this week, members of Los Gauchos, undefeated in the conference race, face an all-star team, composed of players of the remaining four teams, in a game to be played Tuesday afternoon.

Leading scorer in the inter-club contest is Eugene Perkins, of the Buccaneers, who has scored 32 points to date. He is closely followed by Maurice Young, of the Junior Lions, with 30 points, and Willy Mattinson, also of the Junior Lions, with 26.

Latest victim of the Gauchos was the Junior Optimists, who fell before the former five last Wednesday. The victory gave the victors the right to meet an all-star team, which will be composed of five men picked from the other three service clubs.

Leading the Gaucha attack are four veterans who saw action last year in the tournament, Bill Winterbourne, Laurence Dresser, Jack Clark, and Marvin Webb. The only freshman on the squad is Bill Was.

The league standings are:

	W.	L.	Pts.	Opp.
Gauchos	3	0	88	60
Junior Lions	3	1	98	78
Buccaneers	1	2	68	79
Bachelors	1	2	98	73
Junior Optimists	0	3	60	122
Junior Optimists	0	3	60	122

Klein, Lilley Are Ace Scoring Pair

A Tip to Girls!

You're going to feast your eyes on the masculine framework at its best this spring! One of the big reasons why is the new Leisure Jacket (the natural development of the Loafer Jacket).

They'll probably be worn as date coats (we're not getting into that argument!), but wherever they're worn, they'll attract attention to smartly turned-out men.

Thought we'd tell you, for your information . . . see them in our windows!

Enrollment Shows Gain Of 100 Here

All-time Record Is Reached

Enrollment figures released today by Registrar Mabel G. Whiting, revealed a gain of more than 100 students over the corresponding date last year.

"Although second semester enrollment dropped more than 200 students from the 1186 registration for the fall term, jaysee still maintains an all-time high registration for the year," Miss Whiting pointed out.

She emphasized that the total number of students registered for courses during the school year outnumbered last year's by more than 300. Over 1400 students have registered this year, compared to 1080 in 1939-40.

Coincident with the release of enrollment figures the registrar published a break-down of enrollment records for last year. Of the 1186 students registering for initial semester work 775 were freshmen or special students; 347 were sophomores; and 64 were post graduate. There were 708 men registered as compared to 476 women.

Semester Activities Announced Today

Nine major functions will feature jaysee's social calendar this semester, a checkup revealed today.

Following the annual Bachelors Ball tonight will be the AWS Frolic on March 6; Penny Fair, March 14; Spinster Fashion Tea, March 21; and the skating party on March 27.

Friday, April 3 is the date set for the Gypsy Doodle dance, and the Spring Sports dance will be held on April 25. The Annual Fiesta will be held May 11, with the annual college banquet scheduled for June 16 finishing up the year's activities.

'Busiest Man' Works 64 Hours Weekly, Carries Full 17 Unit Program Here

By PETE KLEIN

Tall, distinguished looking Russell Eddy, local freshman, is probably the busiest person on the campus. Dividing his time and effort between two jobs that require 64 hours a week and a 17-unit jaysee course, the 27-year-old former star athlete is the perfect argument against the recent song hit "Time on My Hands."

Speaking of arguments, Eddy, who is a tall likeness of Nelson Eddy, has his own ideas about the draft bill. He has a rating of 1A but has put in an appeal for rejection because "I would rather be put before a firing squad than become a member of a destructive military force that has no control and no cooperation with another nation, and that is exactly what the bill is going to make the US."

To the draft authorities he wrote a long letter (3000 words) stating in detail why he objects.

Eddy works 40 hours a week at the Santa Ana YMCA and puts in the additional hours as a desk clerk at a local hotel.

He was a three-letter man at West high in New York starring in track, basketball, and football. He finished his studies at Montebello Polytechnical high school when the family moved to the Pacific coast.

ALUMNI BRIEFS

Mary Mulhall, '40, is attending the University of Iowa.

Keith Tantlinger, '39, works at Douglas Aircraft corporation.

Newton Pierce, '25, is now enrolled in the department of astronomy at Princeton. He recently published a volume in the annals of Dearborn observatory at Northwestern university.

Phillip Dowds is on a training cruise aboard a U.S. heavy cruiser, which will take him to Cuba for a year. Following the voyage he plans to enter the Naval Reserve as ensign. He attended UCLA last year.

"Best Sellers" Fill Gaucho Library

Miss Lillian Dickson, librarian, stated today that the Los Gauchos' Penny Fair library has a large number of the best sellers on its list.

This list is a help to students because they may get their choice of a very popular book for 5 cents a week. At the public library they would perhaps wait 6 months for the same book, Miss Dickson stated.

Some of the more popular books on the list are:

Buck, Other Gods.
Bromfield, Night in Bombay.
Aldrich, Song of Years.
Bebenot, Dry Guillotine.
Buck, The Patriot.
Simon, Grandma Called it Carnal.

Douglas, Disputed Passage.
Du Maurier, Rebecca.

Field, All This and Heaven Too.
Halsey, With Malice Toward

Some.

March Deadline For Del Ano Pictures

Schedules for Del Ano group photographs, to be taken early in March, were being arranged today by members of the yearbook art staff, and their adviser, Mrs. Lucinda Burrows.

Lists of college organizations, their members, and hours when they will have pictures taken, are to be posted on the bulletin board next week, Mrs. Burrows stated. Copies will also be given faculty members.

All group photography work, it was learned, is to be completed in two days. Beginning at 8 a.m. and working until 3 p.m., Rabe's photographers will take pictures every 15 minutes. Students are to meet north of College hall.

PHI BETA KAPPA

Ruth Budd, '38, is attending the University of California at Berkeley and lives in International House. She was elected to Phi Beta Kappa at Occidental last year.

JIMMIE YAMADA

INTRIGUE

Probably no male went through more delicate maneuvering to get his date for the Bachelor's Ball tonight than Linden Criddle, jaysee news service manager. As a result of his stratagem, Mary Ann Maag, Associated Student secretary, is still a bit indefinite about the score.

Last week Criddle approached Miss Maag and nervously asked her to sign a typewritten note. After a moment of hesitation, punctuated by Criddle's earnest appeals, Miss Maag condescended to endorse the document which said in effect: "I hereby certify that Linden Criddle has asked me to the Bachelor's Ball." Criddle wanted her signature and her refusal.

The score: In order to borrow his room-mate's car, Criddle first had to ask Miss Maag for a date. That was something his chum had cleverly thought up all by himself. It didn't make any difference whether she said yes or nor: he got to use the vehicle if he could prove he had asked her.

Confident that he would be refused—and he was right—Criddle's only cause for uncertainty was the suspicion that his request was not quite orthodox. But all that's over now and everybody is very, very happy (I assure you, dear readers) including the woman of his choice.

ENTRE NOUS

Two family combinations, sister-brother and brother-brother entered the class election finals, and each left the fray with a 50 percent fatality.

Buck Bemis brought joy into the Junior Lion den by his election to the sophomore class vice-presidency; Sister Phyllis was defeated in the freshman treasurer race. Gordon Wilde snuggled into the sophomore treasurer berth, while Brother Don dropped a decision for the freshman vice-presidency.

All this should prove something, but tong politicians are having trouble wringing any sort of moral out of it, except perhaps: "Pledge the family and play for percentages."

CAMPUS SPOTLIGHT

Freshman Jack Forcey is writing a novel with the French revolution as background. Becoming interested in the subject while doing research for high school classes, Forcey has been adding to his opus for the past three years. Ex-student Lawrence Macaray, once campus representative for the now discontinued El Serape, is painting a 26 x 6 feet mural for the Anaheim Union high school. Working four hours per night on the project, Macaray expects to see it completed by June. Theme: "Youth at Play" . . .

ALUMNI AT MINNESOTA

Bernard Hart, '40, is enrolled at the University of Minnesota. He is a brother of Cecilia Hart, local freshman.
